

RESTRICTED

SECTION 8-STRATEGICAL ROADS

0208. Strategically roads should be suitable for use, in all weather, by all classes of military traffic. They may be:-

- a. Existing civil roads.
- b. Roads specially built for the development of a country.
- a. Purely military roads of semi-permanent character.

0209. In undeveloped country they are often developed from operational routes laid out for tactical purposes: in such cases re-alignment is often advisable.
